TERRIBLE ACCIDENT
LON DICKEY THROWN FROM BUGGY AND DRAGGED BENEATH.
So Badly Injured that he Died Without Regaining Consciousness.—Funeral Held Monday Afternoon.
Last Friday night Lon Dickey, driver at Burns' livery stable, started out about ten o'clock with two horses and carriage to take two women to the junction above Prescottville. They did not stop at the junction, however, but drove to Rathmel. On the return trip home the horses ran away and about 12.20 came down Main street at a wild speed dragging Mr. Dickey on his back under the carriage. Just how the accident happened no one will ever know, as Lon was driving home alone. An investigation showed that he had been dragged from what is known as the London store room, near The Mansion Inn, Main street, to where the horses stopped in front of the Reynolds drug store. The tracks showed that the horses got over one corner of the culvert near the London store and the supposition is that Lon fell out over the dash board to left side of carriage and then fell backward between carriage bed and front wheel with his knees up over the front axle and his feet caught under the cross piece on tongue, and lying on his back he was unable to extricate himself with the horses running. The position he was in would have been difficult to get out of with the team standing still. There were some stone lying in front of Daniel Nolan's new residence on Main street and the right front wheel struck one of these stones and smashed the wheel to pieces, and it was supposed at first that when the carriage struck the stone Dickey was knocked out of carriage. One of the horses fell down near the Reynolds drug store and Night Policeman W. P. Dickey, uncle of Lon Dickey, and three or four other fellows who heard the team running down street, ran to team and had the horses unhitched before they discovered that there was a man under the carriage. They noticed something under carriage but thought it was the lap robe. Lon was unconscious. He was taken to Dr. Bowers' office and three or four doctors did what they could to save his life. The back of his head was terribly bruised and his skull fractured and at 8.00 a. m. Saturday, August 5, the young man expired at home of his mother, where he had been taken about 3.00 a. m. He died without regaining consciousness. He had been dragged on his back so far that his clothing was worn through and some skin rubbed off his back and the hair was rubbed off the back of his head.
Lon Dickey was born in Brookville May 20, 1880, and was 25 years old last May. His father, David Dickey, died about the time Lon was born and Mrs. Dickey moved to Reynoldsville, where Lon spent his life. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. William Bee, three brothers, King, James and E. O. Dickey, of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Hickecock, of Punxsutawney.
Funeral services were held at residence of Wm. Bee at 10.00 a. m. Monday, conducted by Rev. S. M. Maurdy, of Pittsburg, who was attending the Sons of Veterans encampment, and the Sons of Veterans attended the funeral in a body. Lon was a son of a veteran but was not a member of the S. of V. Camp. Interment was made in Beulah cemetery.
The floral tribute was as follows: Wreath from Mrs. David Jones, bouquets from Mrs. John G. Stauffer, Mrs. John C. Dillman, Mrs. Elijah Trudgen, Mrs. James McMillen, Mrs. Charles McMillen, Mrs. J. F. Hinderliter, Miss Annie Hinderliter, Mrs. Robert L. Miles, Miss Lizzie Bolt, Mrs. R. J. Mulholland.
